This guide compares leading solar panel manufacturers worldwide, examines the resurgence of US manufacturing, and shows how businesses can source panels wholesale. In recent years, global production of crystalline silicon modules exceeded five hundred gigawatts, nearly doubling the previous year.

Today, US solar manufacturing facilities can produce over 51 gigawatts (GW) of solar modules annually —enough capacity to meet nearly all domestic demand for solar installations. This manufacturing renaissance spans the entire supply chain, from polysilicon production to complete solar panel.

The U.S. Solar Photovoltaic Manufacturing Map shows only active manufacturing sites that contribute to the solar photovoltaic supply chain. It details their nameplate capacities, or the full amount of potential output at an existing facility, where known. This does not imply that these facilities.
